

Julie Schnepf and John Hamm receive recognition at national Self Direction Conference

Julie Schnepf and John Hamm are Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania (Magellan) members, and their successful stories of recovery were recently featured at Applied Self Direction's national Self Direction Conference in Baltimore, MD. Both Julie and John have benefitted from the self-directed care program through Magellan in Delaware County over the past several years.

To read their inspiring stories and see their videos that were produced for this conference, please visit <http://www.appliedselfdirection.com/news/self-direction-mental-health-resources>.

Congratulations, Julie and John!