

Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania employees help local organizations through food drives, pet drive and more

The Care Management Centers in Bethlehem, Johnstown and Newtown have a culture of giving back locally to their communities

Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania, Inc. (Magellan) has organized several upcoming outreach initiatives to benefit local organizations near their care centers across Pennsylvania in Bethlehem, Johnstown and Newtown. These efforts continue Magellan's long history of giving back to their communities.

Key details of the upcoming initiatives

- Baby Bag Ministry to help Liberty Ministries, located in Schwenksville, PA
 - From Sept. 1 to Sept. 29, Magellan employees are collecting diapers, baby wipes and onesies for this organization.
- Delaware County 15th Annual Thanksgiving Food Drive
 - From Oct. 1 to Nov. 17, Magellan employees will collect non-perishable food donations within its Newtown care management center to support this county-wide effort. Contact the Delaware County Government Center at (610) 891-4000 to find the closest food drop-off location.
- The Miracle League of the Lehigh Valley Trick-or-Treat, in Schnecksville, PA
 - On Oct. 25, Magellan employees will participate as a supporter of this annual trick-or-treat for special needs children that is held on the baseball field of the organization.
- Food Drive to help Second Harvest Food Bank of Lehigh Valley & Northeast Pennsylvania, located in Nazareth, PA (a program of the Community Action Committee of the Lehigh Valley)
 - From Oct. 30 to Nov. 17, Magellan employees will collect non-perishable food donations at the Bethlehem care management center to support this organization.
- Pet Drive to help The Sanctuary at Haafsville, located in Breinigsville, PA
 - From Oct. 30 to Nov. 17, Magellan employees will collect animal shelter donations at the Bethlehem care management center by using a wish list from this organization.

- Peer Empowerment Network Santa Shop in Johnstown, PA.
 - In December, Magellan employees from the Johnstown care management center will participate in this county-supported initiative that provides community members from Cambria County the opportunity to have a true holiday experience.

Jim Leonard, vice president and general manager for Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania, said, “We are fortunate that our employees genuinely enjoy helping others, and each year as we approach the holiday giving season it is exciting to do our part to assist local organizations. We look forward to creating impactful results with each of these efforts.”
