

Magellan employees collect over 1,600 pounds of food for the 15th Annual Thanksgiving Food Drive in Delaware County

The 15th Annual Delaware County Thanksgiving Food Drive, from Oct. 1 through Nov. 17, was once again a team effort of community-focused leaders coming together to help those less fortunate who rely on food centers to help feed their families. This county-wide effort is organized by Delaware County Council, Delaware County Department of Human Services, Delaware County Department of Intercommunity Health and Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania (Magellan). All proceeds benefit the Delco Inter-Faith Food Assistance Network (DIFAN) of Family and Community Service.

Magellan employees engage in office contests and other fun activities for the six-week food drive to motivate one another towards this collective effort. Led by Julie Brown, senior account executive, and Elaine Bailiff, administrative assistant II, Magellan successfully collected 1,656 pounds of non-perishable food items at its Newtown Care Management Center.

A group of county-wide partners helped with a food donation drop-off at the First United Methodist Church in Media on Nov. 17. Pictured from left to right are: Councilman Michael Culp; Executive Director Marianne Grace; Bill Chambers, Southeast Regional Mental Health Services office; Gayle Oddi, Office of Behavioral Health; Julie Brown, Magellan; Lisa Blair (Delco Turkey), Office of Behavioral Health; Councilman John McBlain; Director of Human Services Joseph Dougherty.