Implementation of Attachment, Regulation and Competency (ARC) & Grow Framework

The Bucks County Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Programs (BH/DP) and Magellan Behavioral Health of Pennsylvania (Magellan of PA) are soliciting proposals for a provider to make an organizational commitment in offering the Attachment, Regulation and Competency (ARC) framework as well as consideration of the ARC Grow model (a caregiver skill building intervention) to be implemented with youth and families in Bucks County. Candidates for this program are MA/HealthChoices eligible children and adolescents residing in Bucks County, who have experienced complex trauma. This organizational commitment will require agency-wide engagement and training for a 2+ year time span.
