FREE online interactive live CE webinar:

CHILDREN'S CRISIS DIVERSION AND DE-ESCALATION STRATEGIES FOR COMMUNITY SETTINGS

This workshop is a skill building opportunity to help staff increase their knowledge, ability and understanding of the value of implementing crisis management activities in the community. Training will provide strategies to implement during crisis situations in the community. This training event will cover the same content as was offered during the 2023 Crisis training, and the addition of the local crisis perspective. Please feel free to attend as a refresher if you have previously attended. All new children's services staff in Bucks County are encouraged to attend this training, as well as any staff working with youth and families in community-based settings.

Erica Chestnut-Ramirez, MC, LISAC

Erica is the Regional Vice President of EMPACT-Suicide Prevention Center, Trauma Healing Services, overseeing 750 staff, who primarily work in crisis mobile, outpatient (adults, youth, and family), trauma healing, suicide prevention, ACT Teams and suicide prevention programs and National 988 Crisis Call/Chat Centers. Erica is a 2002 graduate of Arizona State University's Master of Counseling Program and is independently licensed as a Substance Abuse Counselor through the Arizona Board of Behavioral Health. Erica has been working in the public mental health system in AZ for 20 years. Through her career she has worked with all major populations, including individuals with a severe mental illness, adult and children's outpatient services and over twelve years experience in crisis services (adult and child). She is an instructor in crisis training and suicide prevention, including serving as a lead instructor for the Phoenix-Metro CIT Program. In addition to managing outpatient programs, she also currently oversees more than 15 Crisis Mobile Teams, which respond to roughly 10,000 community-based crisis calls a year, with a community stabilization rate of nearly 80%!

Detective Nick Margiotta, M.Ed. (Retired)

Nick has twenty years' experience working on improving public safety and the quality of life in communities by the effective integration and utilization of the Public Health System. He has been a police officer for twenty years and served as the Phoenix Police Department's CIT Coordinator. He is the President of Crisis System Solutions and previously served as the Board Secretary for CIT International. Utilizing a "System Engineer" perspective, he has extensive experience in the area of Crisis Services, Homelessness, Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Programs, Veteran Issues and suicide prevention. He has worked closely with Community Behavioral Health, Law-Enforcement and various community stakeholders to develop and help connect silos of care and services which have improved quality of care, efficiency and fiscal accountability. During his career, he has also served on more than a dozen related boards/committees and is the recipient of the Arizona State University's Center for Applied Behavioral Health Policy -Advocacy Award. He has trained over two thousand officers and behavioral-health practitioners, facilitated approximately fifty 40-hour CIT Classes, authored "The Five-Legged Stool: A Model for CIT Program Success" published in The Police Chief Magazine and "No Wrong Door" Integration of Law Enforcement with Crisis Stabilization, published in the National Council for Behavioral Health, National Council Magazine - Crisis Edition. He has been selected for numerous national presentations related to behavioral health and crisis services.
