Peer Run Shelter Proposals

Behavioral Health of Cambria County (BHoCC) seeks to implement a Peer Run Shelter with one provider in early 2025. Proposals are requested for a Peer Run Shelter. The Peer Run Shelter in Cambria County will serve individuals who are homeless by offering an evidenced-based model in a supportive community-based environment that is fully peer operated. The program will be funded through county reinvestment dollars initially, to be sustained by HealthChoices claims reimbursement as a licensed peer provider.
